TUFSDAY EVEN - NOVEMBER 18.

Two Bakers in A Row - A sensational shooting affray occurred on the principal street of Roancke yesterday. Herman Oelrich and Pater Connelly, the former married and the latter single, are both bakers, employed at the City Bakery. As Osirich was nearing home Sunday night from his work earlier than usual he saw Connelly at the eartier than usual he saw Conterly at the entrance of his house. He concluded to watch him Mrs Ocirich had retired, and in response to Connelly's knock at the door she inquired his name, which he gave and said he wished to see her for a moment. She arose and dressed and opened the door, the content of the when Connelly entered. I, is charged that he made improper proposals and, upon being repulsed, attempted violence. At this moment Octrich made his appearance and a lively scene followed, but Connelly escaped. Yesterday morning Osirich armed himself, and coming upon Connelly opened fire. Connelly fied through a store to the street in the rear, pursued by Oelrich, who fired several shots without effect. Connelly finally ran into a bar and took refuge behind the counter. When Osirich entered he was disarmed by the bartender. No arrests have been made, and it is thought that Oelrich will yet shoot Connelly if he finds him. Both parties came to Roanoke together from North Caroline.

AN ELEPHANT IN A STORM AT SEA .- The steamship Delcomyn brought to New York yesterday from Hamburg an elephant, several families of monkeys, an autelope, and twelve enakes for Central Park. They got a preity good staking up on the voyage, which tried the strength of the ship to her limit. A big wave came aboard, deranged the steering gear, (a ried away everything movable on deck, and broke two l feboats. The elephant is a seven-footer, originally from Ceylon, and weigns two and one-half tons. He was confined in a big box on the main deck, and trumpeted thunderously when the storm was at its height. The sailors were more clarmed by his noise than by the see. When the wave that smashed things box did the hip, the elephant i i-d to get out of his box, but his keeper quieted

MEDICINAL.

ECZEMA CHILDHOOD

When an infant my body broke out all over with an eruption or rash, which became more aggravated as I grew older. Every noted physician in our section was tried or consulted. When I came of age I visited Hot Springs, Ark., and was treated by the best medical men, but was not benefited. When all things had failed I determined to try S. S. S., and in four months was entirely oured. The terrible Eczema was all gone, not a sign left; my general health built up, and I have never had any return of the disease.
